

Jackye Elombo has been qualified as a Luxembourg lawyer since 2003 and specialises in Employment law and Business Litigation.

Award-winning Best Social and Legal Partner, ranked amongst Luxembourg's top 500 legal experts, Jackye has over the past 21 years distinguished herself by helping clients rethink their dispute cases and providing pragmatic, responsive, cost-effective and efficient solutions, allowing them to implement the right measures and avoid disruptive large-scale litigation.

Her ability to anticipate risks, prioritize relevant issues and problems logically has greatly contributed to her success and reputation.

She possesses a strong experience in complex and cross-border litigation, as well as a deep knowledge of the judicial procedures and system. More than her ability to solve problems, it is her determination and her willingness to anticipate, avoid and resolve legal hurdle with decisiveness.

Jackye is an author in international and Luxembourg publications on employment and dispute resolution.
